Kings County Board of Estimate Makes Startling Discoveries.

Some Big Slashing May Be Done in the Budget for '94

The Kings County Board of Estimate met in the Brooklyn City Hall this morning, and although the session was a short one preparations were made for the application of the pruning knife to the amounts asked for by some of the departments, which may cost a number of employees their positions and curtail the incomes of officials who receive compensation in fees. In considering the appropriation for the clerks of the Supreme Courf, which is $64,900, the Board learned that $9,400 was for the Clerk and four assistants.

Supervisor-at-Large Fitchie stated that he had made inquiries about the item and could only find three assistants to the Clerk. The Secretary was directed to notify Chief Clerk Girard Stevens to appear before the Board and explain why the item provided for four assistants if there were but three.

The total amount asked for in the city budget for 1835 is $12,857,287.60, against $11,186,889.87 for last year, making an increase of $1,680,397.73. The total amount asked for by the city and county departments for 1895 is $15,174,394.55, an increase over last year of $2,385,941.32.

In some of the departments a large amount is asked for to cover a deficit of last year. In the Department of the Commissioner of Jurors there is a deficit of $25,000, which was largely due to the trial of John Y. McKane and other Gravesend offenders.

From present appearances it looks as though the tax rate for 1895 may be increased from $2.84 on a $100 valuation to $3, unless expenses are cut all around. The assessed valuation cannot be computed yet, but it is thought the increase will not exceed $6,000.000 or $7,000.000.

The Board of Estimate will meet again Thursday morning. It is composed of Mayor Schieren, County Treasever Adams, Comptroller Corwin, City Utor Weber and Supervisor-at-Large Lie.

that escape by the stairway was cut off by the flames. He screamed loudly for assistance, and awakened several other persons in the house, who ran out and sent in an alarm.

Before the firemen arrived Wallace tried to extinguish the blaze, but his efforts were of no effect. The oil had been scattered over the room and the dre gained headway so rapidly that Wallace gave up the fight and looked for some means of escape.

His room was on the third story, and he did not dare to risk jumping to the sidewalk. The firemen were very prompt in setting to the fire, however, and when they saw Wallace's peril they sidewalk. The firemen were very prompt in setting to the fire, however, and when they saw Wallace's perli they promptly ran a ladder up to his window. Foreman Dooley, of Engine 28, and Freman Johnson, of Truck 5, brought him down in safety, barring a few burns. A couple of streams of water were then directed upon the flames and they were extinguished within a few minutes. The loss did not exceed $500.

Dr. Lacy, of 552 Pacific street, dressed Wallace's injuries and he was given shelter by a neighbor.

Fire broke out at 1.10 o'clock this morning in a two-story frame house on Lawrence avenue, near First street, Parkville. The building, which was owned and occupied by Mrs. Margaret Hickman, was totally destroyed, causing a loss of about $2,500.

Both the young women are in love with a "Dutchtown" prize-fighter named Henry Hughes. Miss Jason went to a picnic at Dietz's Metropolitan Park Saturday in company with Hughes, and while there they met Miss Ovington, who was introduced to Hughes by his lady love.

Hughes seemed greatly impressed with Miss Ovington, and escorted her home, leaving Miss Jason to get back to Flushing avenue as best she could.

About 6 o'clock last night the two women met at Flushing and Bedford avenues. There was a lively exchange of words and then a fight, in which Miss Jason had the best of it, as she was armed with a screw-driver, while her antagonist had only nature's weapons.

A large crowd gathered to see the fight and cheered the women on. Both of them were bleeding profusely, but were still full of fight when Policeman Schaffer pushed his way through the crowd and placed them under arrest.

"Td have done you up in a few moments," shouted Miss Jason when she was riding towards the station-house in the patrol wagon.

"Not much, you couldn't," was the defiant reply,

Yesterday afternoon he made three unsuccessful attempts to kill himself by throwing himself in front of incoming trains. The third time he was arrested by a gatekeeper and turned over to a policeman. He tore himself away from the gateman as the policeman approached and tried to jump into the river. He was caught by a deckhand and taken to the police station.

Canfield told the Judge that some one hit him on the head in New York City yesterday and it made him insane.
